THE BOWL

THE BOWL - CONFERENCES

Co-op Live's modular bowl design means the movable stage and state of the art in-house draping system can cater for conferences from 1,000 to 18,000 and everything in between. Featuring an innovative 'blank canvas' black box design, 300 tonnes of rigging capacity and an exceptional in-bowl PA system. The Bowl is the perfect backdrop for any type of conference or event.

 1,000 - 18,000

THE BOWL - BANQUETS

The Bowl is carefully designed to feel big yet intimate. Again, the movable stage and draping means we can cater for large scale dinners and award ceremonies from 1,000 to 2,000 capacity. The modular design means that annual events can grow freely at Co-op Live year on year, making it a home for your event.

EVENT BRANDING

MAKING IT PERSONAL

Equipped with an extensive network of digital screens, Co-op Live offers prime branding opportunities throughout the space. Strategically placed to maximise visibility, these screens allow you to showcase your brand at key touchpoints, from entrance areas to high-traffic corridors and gathering spots. Whether you're aiming to create a lasting first impression or reinforce your message throughout the event, our digital displays provide a dynamic, impactful platform to engage your audience in a memorable way.

SEASONAL EVENTS

Celebrate the holiday season with a memorable Christmas party or enjoy summer on our Canalside Terrace, open exclusively in warmer months. With a scenic outdoor space perfect for networking and social gatherings, we ensure a seamless experience whatever the season.

CONFERENCES

Our venue is designed to make your conference both impactful and seamless. With flexible spaces that can accommodate both small meetings and large gatherings, advanced AV technology, and dedicated support staff, we provide everything you need for a successful event. From breakout rooms for workshops to main halls for keynote sessions, our facilities are tailored to enhance engagement and productivity. Let us help you create a professional, inspiring environment for your attendees.
